

COMMUNITY TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

PREVENTION OF JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

The Idaho Department of Juvenile Corrections (IDJC) is offering a training opportunity for communities interested in competing for the Title V Delinquency Prevention grant. To be eligible for this opportunity, communities must:

- ❖ Have a coalition in place that is working on youth related issues with broad representation from public and private sectors of the community. This coalition, or a portion thereof, would serve as the Prevention Policy Board to meet Title V grant requirements;
- ❖ Be prepared to collect data, identify and prioritize risk factors for youth, and develop a comprehensive plan to address delinquency prevention;
- ❖ Have a commitment from a Unit of Local Government to participate in the Title V grant;
- ❖ Have not received Title V funding in the past.

Communities that are not eligible for this training opportunity include:

- Counties of: Ada, Bannock, Benewah, Blaine, Boise, Bonneville, Butte, Gem, Elmore, Franklin, Latah, Lincoln, Madison, Minidoka, Oneida, Power, Valley, and Washington.
- Cities of: Boise, Caldwell, Kuna, and Nampa.

IDJC will select 1 – 3 communities to participate in this training based on eligibility and community readiness.

The community training will consist of 2-5 days of workshops scheduled at intervals over the 2011 year. Communities will receive ongoing technical assistance throughout the process to support community readiness, data collection/analysis, identification of community risk factors and program planning. Schedule:

- Winter 2011 – Orientation & Program Overview – 1 day
- Spring 2011 – Data Analysis – 2 days
- Fall 2011 – Planning Session & Grant Writing tips – 2 days

This training does not guarantee or imply funding for your project. Potential applicants must still submit an application through a competitive grant process.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN THIS OPPORTUNITY PLEASE CONTACT THE IDJC NO LATER THAN DECEMBER 31, 2010.

Contact:
Karen Skow
208.334.5100 X414
karen.skow@idjc.idaho.gov